Applications are invited from candidates, regardless of sex, age and nationality, who hold a first level (Bachelor) university degree in Economics, Sociology, Political Sciences, Law and Engineering or an equivalent qualification, i.e. relevant to local development and a functional knowledge of English.

The degree should correspond to a 180 ECTS study programme. In case of applicants from countries where ECTS is not in place, only the holders of a degree of at least three years, eligible to proceed with master studies in the country of origin, are considered to meet the selection criteria.

Applications are also invited from candidates who expect to complete their bachelor degree by July 31 2012. In such cases, admission is conditional and applicants are required to send to Master CoDe offices the relevant degree certificate, or a declaration, that the degree has been conferred by fax 0039 0461 282803 at least on 30th August 2012.

Applicants possessing a university degree which was not conferred by an Italian university and that has not been officially recognized as equivalent to an Italian degree should submit a request for equivalence to be recognized in their application for the selection.

In this case they must attach the following documents in addition to the application form:

- degree certificate or degree self-certification (according to Presidential Decree no. 445 of 28.12.2000 concerning EU citizens);
- translation into English of the degree certificate with exams and marks obtained and duly signed by the applicant to enable the Selection Committee to declare its equivalence, for the only purpose of being admitted to the selection of the Master Programme.

Only admitted non-EU applicants holding a non-Italian qualification and admitted EU applicants holding a non-EU qualification must also present their degree certificate along with exams taken and grades, translated and authenticated by an Italian consulate, embassy or diplomatic representative in the country where the degree was issued, and the respective declaration of validity ("Dichiarazione di Valore") or the Diploma supplement in English - the latter, according to the form drawn up by the European Commission, the European Council and UNESCO/CEPES when enrolling.
