FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. When do I choose my courses?	A: Course list and syllabi will be finalized by April 1 every year. Students will be guided through the course registration process shortly after arriving in Saitama. Previous semesters' course lists are available on our website for your reference. http://en.saitama-u.ac.jp/exchangeprograms/courses/
Q. Is there any limitation to take courses?	A: Most of the courses are taught in Japanese, but SU offers more than 40 courses conducted in English which is available to take without any permission. Some courses in Japanese are available as well. Further information and directions are given at the Course registration orientation after arrival.
Q. Can I take Japanese language classes?	A: Japanese language classes will be held 6 blocks per week. If the students do not feel overwhelmed, they are more than welcome to register. Students are to take a placement test in the orientation period and are assigned to classes suitable to their proficiency level. Japanese classes are not mandatory but it will help you adjust to your daily life in Japan, and to make friends here!
Q. How does SU offer credits?	A: The Japanese government defines the concept of one credit in Japan is equivalent to 45 hours of workload including lectures and student learning time. Saitama University follows this regulation; 1 credit = 45 hours of workload including lecture time and learning time for students.
Q. When can I start living in the dormitory? Can I leave my baggage before the check-in day?	A: We will announce the date of check-in later. Unfortunately, no one is allowed to send your baggage prior to your move-in date.
Q. I am planning to study at SU for half a year, but I might change my mind. Can I extend my study period later?	A: Yes. You can extend your period for half more year if the number of students from your university will not exceed the prescribed number, and also if your university approves your extension. Note that delay of informing your extension may cause to leave the dormitory and look for the place off campus for the rest of your stay.
Q. Can I apply for JASSO Scholarship?	A: Recently, the possibility to receive the JASSO Scholarship for exchange students is extremely low. Make sure to come to Japan with sufficient funds to cover the living expenses during the period of your stay. We will inform it immediately as soon as SU is selected by JASSO.
Q. Will I have internet access?	A: Yes! Free Wi-Fi on campus and in I-House is available.
